

Children's Story Books about Fiber Arts

The following children's books are part of the Foothill Fibers Guild Library. To check them out or use in outreach events, contact Shan Kendall 530/478-5628 or Shan.Kendall@gmail.com

- * A New Coat for Anna, Harriet Ziefert – a postwar true story, delightful
- * Charlie Needs a Cloak, Tomie dePaola – humorous story, shepherd who gets a new cloak
- Extra Yarn*, Mac Barnett – good story, knitting
- * 🐑 Farmer Brown Shears His Sheep, Teri Sloat – fanciful tale of sweaters for sheep
- 🐑 Freddie's Blanket, Joanna Johnson – children's story with knitting patterns for adults
- * From Sheep to Sweater, Robin Nelson – pedantic, booring, industrial yarn production
- Knitted by Grandma*, Ruth Hearson – pop-up book
- Knitting Nell*, Julie Jersild Roth – good story, knitting
- * Pelle's New Suit, Elsa Beskow – classic tale of trading work for goods/services
- 🐑 Phoebe's Sweater, Joanna Johnson – children's story with knitting patterns for adults
- * 🐑 Red Berry Wool, Robin Eversole - a touching story about a sheep & a boy.
- 🐑 Shall I Knit You a Hat? Kate Klise – animals and lots of knitting
- A Symphony for the Sheep* C.M. Millen – Poems about shearers, spinners, weavers & knitters.
- That Darn Yarn*, Tony Millionaire – silly knitting tale
- 🐑 The Queen's New Clothes, Tom Dunsmuir – a story of greed, generosity & lots of yarn!
- The Knitting of Elizabeth Amelia*, Patricia Lee Gauch – funny family tale, knitting
- The Mitten Tree*, Candace Christiansen – tender story, knitting
- * Warm as Wool, Scott Russell Sanders – a pioneer woman struggles to keep her family warm.
- * Weaving the Rainbow, George Ella Lyon – beautiful illustrations
- * 🐑 Woolbur, Leslie Helakoski – an unusual lamb!

- * – Covers all steps from sheep to garment
- – Classic storybook
- 🐑 – Animal characters